Being a part of the FISH Leadership Team involves an additional commitment to the youth group. You are expected to attend regular youth group meetings, as well as quarterly leadership meetings, assist with set-up for youth group, and assist with communication and advertising of youth group events and meetings. Your input is extremely valuable in the planning of our youth ministry program.

Please answer the following questions.

1. Why is your faith important to you?

2. What activities do you participate in, other than youth ministry?

3. What 3 words best describe you?

4. What talents or gifts will you bring to the leadership team?

By completion of this application, I understand that my commitment to the FISH High School Youth Ministry Leadership team is an important one, and I will do my best to honor that commitment.
